H2599: ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS; GRRC

Various changes to statutes related to administrative procedures. State agencies are prohibited from conducting any rulemaking without prior written approval of the Governor. Establishes a list of circumstances that a state agency must address as justification for the rulemaking when seeking approval. State agencies are prohibited from submitting proposed rules to the Governor's Regulatory Review Council without a written final approval from the Governor. A state agency that submits a rulemaking request is required to recommend for consideration by the Governor at least three existing rules to eliminate for every additional rule requested by the agency. Before any "regulating entity" (defined) takes any official action to deny a professional or occupational reciprocal license, the regulating entity is required to submit the application and the reason for denial to the Governor for review. Beginning July 1, 2022, all regulating entities that are required to issue occupational or professional reciprocal licenses are required to track information about applications and annually report that information to the Governor. Regulating entities that issue occupational or professional licenses are required to post a list of specified information relating to licensure on the entity website. The list of reasons a person is authorized to petition the Governor's Regulatory Review Council (GRRC) to review a rule is expanded to include if the rule exceeds an agency's statutory authority. At a hearing, GRRC is required to allocate a petitioner and an agency an equal amount of time for oral comments. More. AS PASSED HOUSE
