General Information

Who can form a limited liability company ("LLC")? One or more persons can form an Arizona LLC by signing and filing Articles of Organization with the Arizona Corporation Commission. A.R.S. § 29-3201. These persons are called "organizers." "Person" includes individuals and entities. A.R.S. § 29-3102. "Entity" means domestic or foreign corporations, limited liability companies, and other associations. Statutes are available on the Arizona Legislature's website, www.azleg.gov, by following the link for Arizona Revised Statutes.

Does the organizer have to be a member or manager? No. The person or persons who sign the Articles of Organization can be, but do not have to be, members or managers of the LLC before or after formation of the LLC.

What are the LLC name requirements? The examiner will determine if the LLC name to be used complies with the statutory requirements, but you can review the name criteria, check for name availability and, if desired, submit a name reservation application by using our website at www.ecorp.azcc.gov. Reserving the name is not required. Web access is available to the public at our Phoenix and Tucson offices.

The LLC name must satisfy the requirements of A.R.S. § 29-3112. The professional LLC name must satisfy the requirements of A.R.S. § 29-4106. Statutes are available on the Arizona Legislature's website, www.azleg.gov, by following the link for Arizona Revised Statutes.

The minimum requirements under Arizona law for the name of a limited liability company are that it:

shall contain the words "limited liability company" or "limited company" or the abbreviations "L.L.C.", "L.C.", "LLC", or "LC" shall not contain the words "association", "corporation", "incorporated", or an abbreviation of those words.

AND

If the name contains any of the following words, prior written approval must be obtained from the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions before registration is allowed: Bank; Banker; Banking; Banc; Banco; Banque; Credit Union; Deposit; Savings Association; Building Association; Savings and Loan Association; Building and Loan Association; Savings Bank; Thrift; Trust; or Trust Company. See A.R.S. §§ 29-3112.

A professional limited liability company name shall not conflict with any of the above, and shall contain the words "professional limited liability company" or one of the following abbreviations: "P.L.L.C.", "P.L.C.", "PLLC", or "PLC", in upper or lower case letters.

Trade name – if the entity name you wish to use has an identical existing trade name registered with the Secretary of State's office, the owner of the trade name must be listed within the document as one of the following: member, manager, statutory agent, officer, director, organizer or incorporator.

Should I form a professional LLC? You should check with the agency or board that licenses your profession to see if it requires you to form a professional LLC or if it prohibits you from forming a professional LLC. See A.R.S. § 29-4102 through 29-4108. The Arizona Corporation Commission cannot tell you whether you can or should form a professional LLC, because this issue may involve legal or tax advice, and Commission staff cannot give legal or tax advice to the public.

Note: if you are a licensed real estate agent or broker, check with the Department of Real Estate for requirements before creating your PLLC.

A.R.S. §§ 29-4102 through 29-4108 apply to professional LLCs. Statutes are available on the Arizona Legislature's website, www.azleg.gov, by following the link for Arizona Revised Statutes.

Can I form a nonprofit LLC? You may form a limited liability company and it can apply to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for tax-exempt status, but you do not form a "nonprofit LLC" in Arizona. It is advisable to seek the advice of your tax or legal professional and/or the IRS (www.irs.gov) before you form your LLC. The Commission staff cannot give you legal or tax advice, and cannot tell you whether your LLC will qualify for tax-exempt status.

Should my LLC be member-managed or manager-managed? A general description of each type of management structure is below. The Arizona Corporation Commission cannot advise you on this issue because it involves legal advice, and Commission staff cannot give legal advice. It is prudent to seek the advice of an attorney before forming your LLC in order to make an informed decision about the management structure of your LLC.

Member-managed LLCs have at least one member and do not have any managers listed in the records of the Commission. In general, in a member-managed LLC that has no operating agreement, each member has authority to act for the LLC and each member has one vote per member. Member-managed LLCs with no operating agreement are very similar to partnerships in the way decisions are made, with most day-to-day decisions being made by a majority vote of the members. See A.R.S. § 29-3301.

Caution – in a two-member LLC with no operating agreement that provides otherwise, both members will always have to agree on every action or decision, because there will never be a majority.

Manager-managed LLCs have at least one manager listed in the records of the Commission, and at least one member who must be listed if the member owns 20% or more of the LLC. In general, in a manager-managed LLC that has no operating agreement, each manager has authority to act for the LLC and most day-to-day decisions are made by a majority vote of the managers, with each manager having one vote. See A.R.S. § 29-3301. Manager-managed LLCs are very similar to corporations in the way day-to-day decisions are made. For example, the managers are like the board of directors of a corporation, and the members are like shareholders. Caution – if there are two managers and no operating agreement that provides otherwise, both managers will always have to agree on every action or decision, because there will never be a majority.

Can the LLC have only one member?

Yes.

Can the only member also be the only manager?

Yes.

What is an operating agreement and do I need one?

An operating is a written or oral (verbal) agreement between all members concerning the affairs of the LLC or the conduct of its business. See A.R.S. §§ 29-3102 and 29-3105 through 29-3107. An operating agreement is not required by statute. If there is not operating agreement, then the LLC statutes will govern how the LLC conducts its affairs. Your needs may not be addressed by those statutory provisions, and, therefore, you might want an operating agreement. For example, the LLC statutes provide that each member has one vote, but you may want the member who owns a 60% interest to have 60% of the total voting power. Unless there is an operating agreement that changes the voting to percentage interest, then each member will always have one vote, no matter what percentage they own. As a further example, the statutes limit the reasons for expelling members, and you may want more freedom to expel members.

You should seek the advice of a competent professional such as an attorney concerning the particular needs of your LLC to determine whether you need an operating agreement and what it should contain. The Arizona Corporation Commission does not have a form for an operating agreement, and cannot advise you at all about operating agreements. DO NOT FILE operating agreements with the Arizona Corporation Commission.

What is a Statutory Agent?

A Statutory Agent is an individual or a business entity that the LLC appoints for the purpose of accepting service of process (lawsuit papers or legal documents) for the LLC. See A.R.S. §§ 29-3115. The agent is called a “statutory” agent because a statute requires that the LLC appoint someone for this purpose. See A.R.S. § 29-3115. If, for example, a lawsuit is filed against the LLC, the Statutory Agent will be the one who is served (receives the papers on behalf of the LLC), and then the Statutory Agent should give the papers to the LLC. Note that the law requires that the LLC maintain a statutory agent with a valid address on the records of the Arizona Corporation Commission at all times, and the failure to do so will subject the LLC to being administratively dissolved. See A.R.S. §§ 29-3708. Official notices from the Arizona Corporation Commission will be sent to the statutory agent’s address.

Who can be the Statutory Agent?

A Statutory Agent can be an individual, or an LLC, or a foreign corporation or LLC that is authorized to transact business in Arizona. An LLC cannot be its own Statutory Agent – it must appoint someone apart from itself. For example, the LLC can appoint one of its members or managers in his or her capacity as an individual as the statutory agent, but cannot appoint the LLC itself as the statutory agent.

If an individual is appointed as the statutory agent, that individual must be a permanent, full-time resident of the State of Arizona and must have a permanent, full-time physical or street address in the State of Arizona. The mailing address, if any, of that individual statutory agent must also be in Arizona.

The statutory agent must accept the appointment in writing. The statutory agent can accept the appointment by completing and submitting the Statutory Agent Acceptance form M002 found on our website at: www.ecorp.azcc.gov If the statutory agent is an entity, an authorized agent of that entity can sign the acceptance. An authorized agent is anyone given authority to sign for that entity.

Is publication required? Yes. See A.R.S. § 29-3201. A notice of the filing of the Articles of Organization is required to be published.

DO NOT PUBLISH UNTIL THE COMMISSION APPROVES THE ARTICLES FOR FILING. If your statutory agent street address is in Maricopa or Pima county, a notice will automatically be published on our website in the public notice section. If your statutory agent street address is outside of Maricopa or Pima county, you will need to publish notice in a newspaper. The approval letter you will receive from the Arizona Corporation Commission will contain information on how to publish. You can also visit our FAQ’s page online for more information.

When is the LLC formed?

If no date is specified – if no delayed date is specified in the Articles of Organization, and if the Articles of Organization meet all statutory filing requirements and all fees are paid, the LLC is formed on the date the Articles were delivered to the Arizona Corporation Commission.

If a delayed effective date or time or both is specified – if the Articles of Organization meet all statutory filing requirements and all fees are paid, the Articles would be effective on the specified time and date. If a delayed date is specified, but no time is given, then the time used will be 12:01 a.m. Mountain Standard Time. A delayed effective date may not be later than the ninetieth (90th) day after the date the Articles are delivered to the Commission for filing.

If all filing requirements were not met, the Arizona Corporation Commission will send notice that additional information and/or fees are required. If the requested information and/or fees are provided within that 30 days and all statutory filing requirements are met, then the LLC will be considered formed as of the date the original Articles were first delivered to the Commission.
